

Smart Contract Enforcement Contract

DECLARATION. I, Suyash Kumar Sumaroo, a legal adult, being of competent and sound mind, do hereby declare that the contents of this contract reflects my personal wishes without any undue influence whatsoever.

This contract is entered into by and between Suyash Kumar Sumaroo (PRESENTER) and a smart contract (SMART CONTRACT) as of 09/09/2020.

WHEREAS the PRESENTER wishes to conduct the talk of the Blockchain Governance presentation planned on Thursday 10th September, 2020 between 10:00 and 10:45 with the use of a smart contract deployed at the following address '0x4148dC49C1F375F808e83616031AD3706492B042' on the Horizon Africa Blockchain Network. The smart contract represents a way for the audience of the talk to determine the direction of the talk by a simple voting mechanism which can be performed by the use of the Horizon Africa Mobile App.

LIABILITY

The SMART CONTRACT and any third-party user acknowledge that this contract will hold the PRESENTER harmless against any or all claims of loss or damage. Should any of the following technical problems arise, this contract will be declared void:

1. Cannot vote via the Horizon Africa Mobile App
2. Cannot view the voting results based on the votes
3. Smart contract or blockchain stops responding
