Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

One girl, one hair dryer, few primary colors, a canvas, and several pours later, an unconventional gorgeous fluid art, in motion that captures the absurdity and chaos of human emotions became alive. Then, a click, to freeze this very moment.

A Human Moment is a piece of art that captures raw emotions, that glide like water colors, before they hit us to feel.

It is a powerful reminder that beyond the entropy, randomness, absurdity, and chaos of our unfiltered human emotions lies a beautiful yet messy brain tapestry.

The colors are yelling, the art is talking, to feel, without, any social construct, without the black and white, without the blues.

To hold on, to this human moment, feel.

Artwork Description:

This piece was created using paint, canvas, a hair dryer, straws, water, dish soap, and a sponge to create a fluid art. The final digital art was created using a built-in photo editing app on a Samsung Galaxy A30.
