2. Artwork Information (continued)

Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

Each piece begins analog, constructed with cut-outs from vintage publications dating from 1932-1984.

Analog -> Ultra High Resolution Digitized -> Animated

My intention is to bring a new meaning to mixed "media", delivering a unique perspective from between the lines of classic publications including Life, Playboy, Colliers, and True Romance.

Each piece dives into the rich history of literary brilliance and writers' objectives to stroke the imagination of readers with intriguing content. Classic Madison Avenue era marketing design paints a contrasted, "perfect life" through its advertisements and works perfectly, yet ironically, against the serious tones of the current events per the times.

Lastly, the original depiction of women's beauty provides an eye catching, motive posing aesthetic which celebrates the movement of their sexual freedoms, that was eventually exploited in a tasteless, toxic, and vulgar manner by the adult film industry and internet.
