Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

I envision and build digital alternate realities. Artworks that are abstract but somewhat referential, including images and symbols originating from the physical world.

The psychic breeze flew me in a dream's dream where it probably all began. Red Indians and their closeness to nature I saw, their powerful bond of oneness with animals I felt and their staggering courage I breathed.

As pure as water was their hearts and as light as a feather, their fears were few and they were noble and honorable tribesmen.

As fierce as their horses were their spirits and as enchanting as the forest were their chants.

As swift as lightning were their arrows and as nimble as a fox were their crafts.

As meaningful as the rain were their memories and as truthful as the moon were their faith.

In their ancestors they believed and perhaps Acidhena is mine or yours or yours and mine altogether.
