Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

An impressionist painting vividly portraying one of the strongest images in Hinduism. The Lotus Flower, sign and symbol of rebirth and regeneration using elements of creation through saturated colors that reflect the crimson light of the Sun deity on the humble body of water and blooming greens, combined in nature and blended in color, that fateful blossom which has made life possible and sustainable on Mother Earth's merciful soil.

Any sensible soul sighting this painting, shall at once captivate and contemplate the feminine and motherly side of nature, who shoulders on herself no other responsibility than the caretaking of her creations and the preservation of balance for the betterment of all sentience.

Nature has no other function except to blossom, and the Lotus is the prime epitome of Mother Nature's personality, immersed and indulgent, yet untouched and uncontaminated. Always blossoming.
