2. Artwork Information (continued)

Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

Inspired by traditional nudist painters, like Modigliani and Picasso. Simplicity, symmetry and color balance evokes imperfect perfectness of sensuality and sexuality in the female form in this piece. A richly filled space versus an outline of the female form gives this piece beauty and balance, a concept borrowed from the yin and yang further grounding power of duality in females

I am an independent, freelance fine artist currently based out of Los Angeles. Primarily concerned with the female form and drawing inspiration from nature and classical nude painters, a series in the collection: God is a Woman is focused on the nude female form that evokes sensuality and highlights divinity in the natural female form. The composition of the pieces in this collection display unforgiving line-work, intense colour, and provoking forms all inspired by the natural, irregular shapes and structures in our natural world. My most typical mediums that I work in are oil paints and oil pastels however, gouache and charcoal are also slowly becoming popular mediums with me.
