2. Artwork Information (continued)

Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

The Bennu is an ancient Egyptian deity who was a self-created being said to have played a role in the creation of the world. It was said to have flown over the waters of Nun that existed before creation, landing on a rock, and issuing a call that determined the nature of creation. It was also known to be a symbol of Osiris and is said to have sprung from the heart of Osiris as a living symbol of God, thus renewing itself. The Egyptian sunbird Bennu was identified with the Temple of the Sun God Re at Heliopolis, which was revered by the Egyptians as the sacred mound from where the Sun god, in his aspect of the Benu Bird, arose cyclically to renew Egypt. The word Benu in Egyptian means both purple heron and palm tree and the predecessor of the Phoenix of Greek mythology. It lived for 500 years before dying, resurrecting, building a funerary egg with myrrh for the paternal corpse, and carrying it to the temple of the Sun at Heliopolis. It is this egg, of the Great Cackler, Geb, that is left on the primordial mound where the sun god Ra is reborn.
