Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

Billy the Bulbul was my favorite painting for a long time because I believe in the magic of the universe and this character came into being after a meditation with a strong message to convey. He is the only character which was outlined and cut to be placed on a very colourful background to give it a 3D effect as if he almost wanted to fly out of the paper. This painting for me symbolizes freedom and the need to believe in magic as magic exists. The secret is to align ourselves enough to hear our inner voice through perseverance.
