2. Artwork Information (continued)

Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

Born and raised in this world where nothing makes sense, our mediocre adult lives have been 'disturbed' by the virus and lockdown. A lockdown initially established to keep us safe... But not sane.

Locked inside for months, we felt like losing our minds, so we started indoor activities just to keep ourselves lucid enough.

Some of us started rediscovering ourselves, our inner child. We sang, we drew, we played games, we wanted to be outside but we were grounded.

This artwork among many others was created during that specific time where I met myself, again, as a little girl.

A little girl who loved drawing eyes, fishes, boats, and other incomprehensible shapes that only herself understands. And it was at that specific moment of her life, that the grown-up woman I am today, wanted her world to be colorful again, like it used to be before being stucked in a conventional routine.

Isn't that childish?
