2. Artwork Information (continued)

Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

Some would say that Artists are not born, but rather they are forged through the day-to-day works they create. Developed through the investigation of techniques and the use of different materials, but above all else, fine-tuned by the improvement of their pictorial proposal with artistic, historical, technical, and scientific bases as the foundation for their creations.

Within these compositions, I have tried to capture space, lights, and shadows in movement, where I envision the liberation of a Hellenic myth of the universal flood in Greek mythology, where Zeus (Supreme God of Olympus) tired of the evil of human beings decided to end their existence.

This series intends to express and project the Gods in their different chromatic intensities with a palette of colors ranging from red to ocher and from blue to purple, effectively creating a kaleidoscope effect to make them part of the fantasy we live today. Discovering other worlds, creating other realities, and evoking the feeling that we are at a point of infinity.
