Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

In my collection "Universal Connection" I explore the nature of consciousness and connection to the Universe and its elements. I wish everyone to see and feel their divinity within the physical form and connect with their true nature that is wholeness, love, peace, abundance, oneness.

I love to paint women because they represent the divine feminine aspect that exists within everyone, which is very intuitive, wise, raw, untamable, unpredictable, irrational, perfect, and pure. It is full of pleasure, ecstasy, and bliss. It enjoys and celebrates the life and whole existence. It is that wild and raw part of our being that sees a connection to everything and everyone.

These visions came to me very spontaneously and intuitively. Each of them will guide the viewer within and connect to their senses and heart of all things. Every painting is not only to be admired but meditated upon and experienced as a guiding journey within.

Becoming an artist wasn't a rational decision for me. It was a calling from within, that nudging feeling I felt while being on a journey of self-discovery. I used to have a successful career in IT, but something didn't feel quite right. And so, when I went on a solo trip to discover what I actually would love to do, I visited the world's famous art galleries and museums.

And one moment standing in front of Claude Monet's original painting I've heard the voice saying: "You can paint too." It was a voice that led me back "home" into my wholeness. It was so loud and precise that I couldn't hold back. I had to change my whole life to finally permit myself to be who I am and shine my light.

My art represents freedom, transformation, and healing, diving into one's deep nature and discovering the true self. My whole process is being divinely guided and I am simply being a vessel for the Spirit, Source to come through and touch people's hearts. I receive visions in deep meditations or now simply by being constantly "connected" and attuned to the divinity within me.

I love using different materials and media, experimenting, and bringing dynamic movement, energy with expressive brushstrokes into each painting while also creating a soft atmospheric feeling with colors and light.

My wish and hope are that my every painting will become a mirror to one's soul and help to connect to the heart while also bringing joy, love, beauty, healing, vibrational transformation.
