Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

Through affirmation and forgiveness, women have used their past to push themselves into the future. They have discovered the fortitude to change for the better by refusing to let the past interfere with their future and facing the agony of change. For this reason, it is believed that the rebirth of a woman is a collection of powerful, heart-wrenching healing and empowerment tales. Domestic, devoted, moral, pure, peaceful, graceful, simple, and attractive have all been attributes associated with women. Consequently, nature is seen as embodying all of a woman's characteristics.

The piece reveals the strong connections between nature and the female form. The intense red bloom in the artwork epitomizes a mythical hibiscus with veins that symbolizes power, confidence and courage. Consequently, "Emergence" predominantly portrays a blooming female who broke the chains of abuse and overcame her obstacles.
