2. Artwork Information (continued)

Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

The artist of this floral abstract the shades of blue, red, yellow and green with perfect harmony to bring out abstract figures and illusions of flowers on a sky blue sea water. Unlike realistic paintings of objects, abstract arts know no boundaries in relation to visual perception of the viewer. The shapes that makes up this artwork, meld together and the colors used to make this art flows together, creating a harmonious pattern. In this piece, the painter used bright red, yellow and green colors illustrating poppies flowers floating on a bed of sea which melts with bright sky blue colors with uneven surface of paint texture.

Artist Statement:

Without the power to actualize an idea, art would not exist. I believe that art can be viewed as a spiritual form of shaping a concept or idea. My creative artworks include paintings and drawings; I believe that my work can influence the emotions of people by reflecting on a collective spiritual perceptual between the individual and the art. My inspiration comes from the law of nature and the inclusion of colors and texture using basic forms. Each piece is simultaneously an extension from the past, where the painter comes from. If the viewer took just a couple of seconds to reflect and view my content, then I have succeeded in my work.
