Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

Gerard the Ornate Day Gecko came into being after a major environmental catastrophe happened off the coast of Mauritius. I was in tears after the oil spills of Wakashio and I needed to paint of the endemic animals of the island to honour its being and need for survival. Gerard the Gecko is my Conservationist masterpiece and is the first one which inspired me to paint more endangered animals so that our children can enjoy the unconditional love of wildlife one day. Gerard the Ornate Day Gecko came into being with the medium of acrylic on 400g cotton paper which is commonly used for aquarelle painting. It is one of my most colorful paintings which took a total of 6 hours to complete.
