Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

Queen Elizabeth II is much anchored in the pop culture, where she has become enigmatic and quite the personality in our collective memory. This painting was inspired by her time of reign as a monarch. She was a catalyst for modernity in a traditional and conservative British society.

As an artist from Mauritius, I wanted to portrait her during her early reign where she went face to face with numerous problems along her dutiful position. Through this art piece, I wanted to achieve that balance of The Queen as a regular person having ups and downs and also being statuesque in her destined duty.

This painting is a tribute to her longevity as a monarch while also voluntarily representing the human ambassador, for the freedom of newly formed nations.

I wished for my first NFT to convey a message of hope, the hope that wherever you are on Earth, you can achieve greatness.

God save the Queen.
