Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

"She would be fearless, always caring for everything she ever created. She would be the protector of all, and cast shadows over those who defy her. She would be dreaded by her enemies and all will know her as Hel."

She is not the first thing that comes to mind when you say "Goddess": She is not all life and light, creation and prosperity, peace and hope. She is powerful and fierce, just but not forgiving, vengeful but not cruel. She is a paradoxe.

Things are not always black or white in life, that would be boring. Mythologies, legends or movies tends to portray the "hero" as someone too good to be true and the villain as someone inhumanely cruel but that's not it!

Thus I think that if God was a woman she would be a Goddess that is kind and protective but She would not hesitate to wear the skulls of her foes as a crown.
