Description: (max. 125 Characters)
 The artwork is focused on vitalik Buterin's personality and the magic power of the new evolution that it brings to the world flowing all ways.
 The overall colour palettes are colours portraying an optimistic personality reflecting the personality of vitalik Buterin as a whole.
 The glass like effect is being included in the artwork to portray what Buterin called "...ether', referring to the hypothetical invisible medium that permeates the universe and allows light to travel."
 Since glass is a material that allows light to travel, it also symbolises change, transformation, eternity and reinforcing human relationship in itself.

2. Artwork Information (continued)

Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

The glass effect is implemented in Vitalik Buterin's face to represent that rebirth aspect of Ethereum.
The face is painted with the optimistic tone in a glass like effect in the colour such as:

blue(stability), light blue( tranquillity ), Turquoise(balance and healing), green( representing growth and ambition), yellow (representing happiness),purple(representing power and luxury), orange (representing warmth, uplifting energy ).

All round the face we have the mixture of glass like texture and rough texture representing the solutions that Ethereum brought to the possible challenges in the bitcoin world as well as outlining his contribution in bitcoin magazine.

The dripping like from face to the coin is symbolic to the moulding of a glass to transform into a beautiful creation.

Therefore the coin Ethereum is there in the middle , portraying not only the optimistic mood but the magic of Ethereum in itself as a coin.

The colours of coins and the face are merged together creating a magical effect through the use of lines of different size and textures.

The background line and dots represent the networking of bitcoin, blockchain and the interconnection of people selling more than just bitcoin and assets all around the world.

The dots are in the shape of Ethereum.

It represents the magic of Vitalik Buterin's world and his ideas.

The flow in the colour of pink purple and light blue in the "s" like shape represents the flow in ideas and connection that brings happiness and power to the world interconnecting with the traditional ways through its challenges and overcoming it like a genius.
