2. Artwork Information (continued)

Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

You should be brave enough to claim your position and come to the light, stop dwelling in the shadows and show the world that you are valuable too.

Often we stay in the dark, full of doubts, uncertainties and limitations ... out of fear of judgement or poor self esteem due to past battles. The addition of eyes in this artwork signify judgement and pressure. To ensure real humility and realness of character, that is, fear that our differences will be rejected ... we should not be concealing or controlling our light and actual potential, by living in the shadows.

Society tends to place us in boxes or expect us to behave in a specific way so that we are able to match society's definitions standards and we become easy to be molded.

We must muster the strength to face and transform reality.
