2. Artwork Information (continued)

Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

After exploring different ideas and interpretations of the theme "Breathe", I opted for an unconventional approach by trading my usual Hyperealistic style for Surrealism.

An abridged definition of Surrealism would be : " a 20th-century avant-garde movement in art and literature which sought to release the creative potential of the unconscious mind, for example by the irrational juxtaposition of images."

It is this very "irrational juxtaposition of images" which is at the core of my artwork.

Dyspnea is often described as a feeling of suffocation, as if drowning in invisible treacherous waters beneath the skin. My artwork portrays this sensation by depicting the subject's nose, mouth and upper chest as rough waters. All this makes for a "visual analogy" of the physical sensation of Dyspnea.
