Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

The Little Red Riding Hood is a work of art created in 2020 during the Covid-19 pandemic. Being the first complete major piece of my art journey, it has much significance to me as an artist. A lot of sweat and brainpower went into the creation and ideation of the final piece, which only popped after drawing tens of thumbnails.

The concept is simple; instead of running from her fear, the Big Bad Wolf, who is constantly tracking her, hiding in the bushes, Blanchette has taken matters into her own hands. Wielding a God-of-War like axe filled with mysterious destructive power, she wanders the very depth of enchanted forests to track down and slay each of these mutated creatures who have caused the demise of thousands of citizens.

Long story short; don't hide from your demons and fears. Be brave and courageous enough to turn your failures into opportunities, your weaknesses into what fuels your inner strength.
