Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

I have been a Morcheeba band fan for a bit, and their live show at the Brooklyn Bowl on October 8th , 2019 was supposed to be an exciting affair that I was looking forward to attending.

But, it turned out the show itself... disappointing. The venue itself was reasonably modest and did not have good lighting on the stage. The number of people gathered was not great - it was almost a half-empty space. Maybe they did not advertise it well, or maybe their popularity was going down. The show paled in comparison to the previous shows I saw on YouTube, and I was disappointed.

I decided to revise that situation by painting the show as if it was epic, hip, and a super crowded affair, with elaborate, rich, and professional stage lights.

By looking at the work today, I know for sure how I will remember it - that show was SUPER-GRAND.
