2. Artwork Information (continued)

Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

A beautiful morning at a place called "Hanuman Dhoka" in Kathmandu, Nepal. The painting depicts the story of worship place. The serene blue at the background give the pure vibes and calmness, the vibrant red, roofs and walls creating harmony in the painting with eye travel towards the yellow dressed human figure.

This painting is done on the spot also known as Plein Air at the time of Nepal Watercolour Biennale with group of many foreigner artists.

Coming down to the cozy streets I came across this temple named "Hanuman Dhoka" where the vibes were so spiritual and strong that the sun contributed an essence of warmth in cold winters leading me to have paint the beautiful scenario and the experience on paper.
