Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

Spending time outdoors was a luxury during the last two years. With everyone having been confined to their homes and practicing social distancing to help flatten the curve of coronavirus cases, we didn't have the opportunity to, say, leisurely stroll through the park, hike up a mountain, or at the very least, get caught in an unexpectedly refreshing spring rainstorm. But for those fashion lovers among us, one place to find a momentary visual escape back into nature was through the vibrancy of outdoor runway shows.

Many designers exposed their collections, having taken advantages of public city spaces and private outdoor spaces in New York, during NYFW.

This work is inspired by one of the outdoor shows I attended during Spring NYFW 2020.
