2. Artwork Information (continued)

Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

A representation of the fundamental belief in resonance with the past, present and future. With the Asantehene as the leader and the in between of the earthly realm and the spiritual realm.

And the golden stool believed to house the sprits of the Asante nation, the masks which were used in rituals, to bridge between the two world, the present is the living and yet to be shaped and the future is about the progress and evolution and dependent on the past as to be a near present.

How each individuals is so important to them and the respect they show to the spirits is remarkable and deep that it echoes to me as a mauritian artist.
