Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

This is Sasha, Atana's twin. He can see, smell, taste, hear and feel in a way no other war wolf can. His hyper sharp senses makes him the best scout of the pack. Sasha like all natural born war-wolf scouts was raised for the first 16 years of his life in a pitch black cave amongst his peers to hone his senses to their apex. His training also consisted of tracking a mouse in underground tunnels for days without water or food. Like his sister, he too comes from the heart yet prefers loneliness above leading the pack.

Part of his training also consisted of tracking a mouse in underground tunnels for days without food or water while resisting the urge to eat the creature. Like his sister, he too comes from the heart yet prefers loneliness above leading the pack.

When he goes on a scout, he communicates telepathically with his twin sister by sharing impressions. They share a really strong bond.

The Tsaruk Clan, the infamous pack of war wolves.

War-wolves are genetically bred hybrids designed to be the most ferocious and amphibious tactical killing machines on any terrain. Their bones have been engineered into reinforced silicon carbide, making them virtually unbreakable and their flesh produce reptilium, allowing them to heal from any weapon injury faster than a blink of an eye.

They are mercenaries, they do not take orders from anyone, they only take contracts. In their culture, jewellery is both a symbol of prestige and signals high mercenary rank.
