2. Artwork Information (continued)

Artist Statement - A detailed story about the creator, their artistic inspiration and the creation process of the specific artwork for viewer's understanding.

I am Gaisindai Gangmei (artist name: -SIN-), an artist from India. Art has always been my passion, and I am a Fine Arts graduate. While I worked with traditional mediums in college, I subsequently turned to digital art after seeing a considerable number of inspirational artworks by digital artists. I draw inspiration from animations, sci-fi, fantasy films, and video games, and this set reflects that.

I create digital paintings, concept art, and illustrations. I loved drawing as a child, but I only made it a priority in my life recently.

When I got my drawing tablet, I quickly started to love the flexibility and speed of the digital environment. I spend most of my time painting and sketching, consolidating my skills with tutorials, and experimenting with styles and techniques. I looked at many artworks by professional artists, curious about what brushes they used, their painting styles, then picked on the things I could apply to my own style.

Snatched Life

In the torn-down, captured city, a robot, which sympathizes with the human resistance movement, snatches the central processing unit from another robot which was about to decapitate a woman, and kills it instantly. It helps the lady on her feet, and directs her to a refuge center before continuing his patrol to help other humans in distress. This facism of its own kind is not something it could tolerate.
