2. Artwork Information (continued)

Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

Since my childhood, I have always been fascinated by the sun and the moon. Is it a coincidence that my name actually means bright full moon?

I started painting back in 2017 as I needed an escape from everyday life and then mandala art found me. Today I am specialized in mandala, mainly dotting art.

Being both an artist and a literature teacher, I love digging and creating unique metaphors from things that might seem insignificant at first glance.

For my sun and moon I wanted to portray the element of fire in another way, as fire in itself symbolizes warmth and life. For this piece I was greatly inspired by Cocorina's astral tarot and by Vincent Van Gogh's "The Starry Night". Since I decided to portray the element of fire through the sun and moon, I wanted not only to focus on the burning love between the sun and the moon but I wanted to portray the essence of their flaming love. But there is a twist, my sun and moon not only showcase love, but they do have underlying metaphors as well. Here are a few that I do believe in:

- 1) What if the sun and the moon were actually the unification of the body and the spirit into a self-love journey?
  - 2) What if the sun and the moon were the unification the body and self-acceptance?
  - 3) What if the sun and the moon were the merging of the masculine and feminine energy in order to create the self?
  - 4) What if the sun and the moon were all the 'imperfections' combining with the real news in order to create your own definition of perfection?
- Nevertheless, be it in whatever you believe in, it is the flame, desire and warm of the fire that keeps us alive!
