Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

Without beauty, the things we create can never slip out from the everyday into the wonderful realm of what we call ART. Regardless of what I am drawing, I try to be guided by notions of beauty. In erotic work, I feel one rarely sees the beautify and is instead bombarded by the seedy. I'd like to change that.

Having studied classical animation, story telling and design share an equal importance in my approach to creating and image. A beautiful design is little without a narrative behind it. Here, I wanted a glimpse of something that maybe we shouldn't be seeing. It's a moment between two people so focussed on each other that the rest of the world has slipped away into shadow.

Every piece starts with a pencil and paper, but for this digitalized world a digital brush is helpful, and so after finding my composition the piece is redrawn and coloured in Procreate.
