CREATOR'S CERTIFICATE OF AUTHENTICITY

2. Artwork Information (continued)

Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

A woman's life is similar to a snake's life, she has to shed layers and layers in order to find herself and truly be who she wants to be despite society, religion and family. No one truly sees her for what she is because each and everyone she comes across wants a different version of her that they have in their mind disregarding her true self. Amidst all, she forgets who she truly is and tries to find herself yet again.

The cobblestone represents her ideas of the outside world from her parents' cozy and protected nest, where she tries to crossover to the real world by beginning to walk down the aisle of the cathedral and start a new life. A new life with her new family, married and tied into a relationship with yet another version of her that her new family wants her to be.

She is standing naked in-between both worlds trying to find her own self, before she completely loses herself to the world!

The orchid on her head shows how naïve she is to think that the world is a bed of roses. But yet she is brave enough to get through all obstacles the cruel world throws at her. Through it all she will pave her way to a life of her dreams.
