CREATOR'S CERTIFICATE OF AUTHENTICITY

2. Artwork Information (continued)

Artist Statement - A detailed story about the creator, their artistic inspiration and the creation process of the specific artwork for viewer's understanding.

I am Gaisindai Gangmei (artist name: -SIN-), an artist from India. Art has always been my passion, and I am a Fine Arts graduate. While I worked with traditional mediums in college, I subsequently turned to digital art after seeing a considerable number of inspirational artworks by digital artists. I draw inspiration from animations, sci-fi, fantasy films, and video games, and this set reflects that.

I create digital paintings, concept art, and illustrations. I loved drawing as a child, but I only made it a priority in my life recently.

When I got my drawing tablet, I quickly started to love the flexibility and speed of the digital environment. I spend most of my time painting and sketching, consolidating my skills with tutorials, and experimenting with styles and techniques. I looked at many artworks by professional artists, curious about what brushes they used, their painting styles, then picked on the things I could apply to my own style.

The Onslaught of Armors:

Powerful robot combat forces begin their attacks on the human resistance's ranks. The robot dictators' message resounds in their armors: the destruction of all humans, and the conquest of the city must happen at all cost. The battle rages on, with zealous efforts from both sides. The robot underdogs receive further heinous commands from their commanders, they demand that no mercy is shown, and to destroy anything that crosses their paths.
