Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

Welcome to "Universe Chaos", the most popular free floating attraction on Lunaria. Right at the edge of the Western Tundra Desert where sunsets feel surreal, especially from the meadows of Saturn's rings..

This thing is huge, it is staged in the remains of a cyborg titan, from the time of the first movers.

They were able to create with the use of Gravity Control Technology, a multidirectional orbital cancelation isolated gravity field where party goers and laser tag players can land on any planet and dance, roam and play without being affected by another planet's orbital field. This is where Cithara fest takes place every year and Boryana's May 19th was played for the first time. During the festival, each of these planets becomes a gigantic multi staged dancefloor.

It also sometimes serves as a training facility for military space flight trainees where they come to test their flysuits and refine their flying-shooting skills.

Moon mission, a decade of preparation, will be launching soon and deployed on the most advanced technology available to humanity to this day. Crypto and NFTs.

Be part of this epic journey into the great unknown. The mission: Land on the moon and gain glory. Yet who knows what awaits us? Just like journeying into the cryptospace, this is uncharted territory and no one knows what's ahead of us... Only the brave... Only.
