Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

I made this instrumental and dedicated to my girl. It's like a love sonnet which you can hear in a wedding. I was working with a few of my boys in the studio and we were just vibing.

It started with a chord on the keys, it started in rnb but then I wanted to change the vibe and give it more life, so i added afro drums to it. It fits the vibe perfectly so I got my guy to play the bass over it and it suited very well. After a couple failed arrangements and sounds we found a perfect fit with the synths and more chords being played of the electric keyboard. I loved how it was sounding but it was missing a few more natural instruments so I sent the beat off to one of my guys in the USA who plays professional violin to add some sauce to it. Then I asked my guy to get someone to play sax for me and boy did he play!

After all this I needed to arrange it in a way that was cohesive and it all worked together. I then remarked that the main reason I felt in this mood is because I was thinking about my girl. She tends to be my inspiration more time so I thought I would dedicate it to her since the song is beautiful and so is she!
