2. Artwork Information (continued)

Artist Statement - A detailed story about the work for viewer's understanding.

A symbol of ancient Egypt that was one of the most important and ubiquitous was the winged solar disk known as the Horus Behdety or Horus of Behdet, symbolizing kingship, power, the flight of the soul, and divinity. In Egypt, it seems to have at first represented the syncretization of the god of the midday sun, Behdeti and the sky god Horus. In time, it came to be associated with the supreme power of Horus and his representative on earth, the pharaoh. This symbol was used as an amulet to provide protection to those who wore it.
